Inaugural Irish Tourism Industry Awards – get your entries in!

Tourism businesses around the country and overseas are invited to submit their entries for the inaugural Irish Tourism Industry Awards, which will be presented at a gala event in Dublin on 24 April.

The new Irish Tourism Industry Awards is the first national scheme to identify and celebrate leading lights within the wider tourism industry, at home and overseas, who are making a difference, setting an example and actively contributing to recent tourism growth.

The closing date for entries is 16 February. Full details of the awards and how to apply are available at irishtourismindustryawards.ie. So, get your entries in!
