Tourism Ireland announces new Stakeholder Liaison Manager – Northern Ireland

Tourism Ireland has announced the appointment of Ciaran Doherty to the new position of Stakeholder Liaison Manager – Northern Ireland.

Ciaran will take up the post immediately, working from Tourism Ireland's office in Coleraine. He will work collaboratively with colleagues in Tourism Northern Ireland and other agencies, with local authorities and with groups across the Northern Ireland tourism industry, to identify opportunities to further enhance the delivery of tourism from overseas and to grow overseas tourism to Northern Ireland.
