Tourism Ireland shares stunning footage of Kerry and Northern Ireland with millions of potential holidaymakers around the globe

Discover two of Tourism Ireland's latest videos which feature captivating footage of some of the island of Ireland's most scenic locations.

'Top Things to do on the Ring of Kerry' shares viewpoints and experiences along the famous 179km route, including beaches, traditional Irish pubs and islands like Skellig Michael.

'Top Ten Amazing Places in Northern Ireland' showcases aerial footage of breathtaking scenery including the Mourne Mountains, Lough Erne as well as locations associated with Game of Thrones filming, such as The Dark Hedges – all shot from never-before-seen angles using drone cameras.

Tourism Ireland has created these films to encourage potential tourists around the world to come and visit in 2016. The films are being shared on our popular social media channels (3.6 million Facebook fans, 345,000 Twitter followers) and on Ireland.com (16.6M views in 2015).

The films are one element of Tourism Ireland's first half 2016 marketing campaign – an extensive programme of activity across all markets which continues to roll out. You can find out more about our ongoing campaign here.
